RE: Executive Director Opening at PCRG

The Pittsburgh Community Reinvestment Group (PCRG) seeks an energetic, passionate and experienced individual to lead PCRG as its new executive director.

Formed in 1988, PCRG is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization consisting of community-based organizations representing low- to moderate-income (LMI) neighborhoods throughout Allegheny County. PCRG works towards economic justice, equitable investment practices and sufficient financial resources to revitalize communities throughout Allegheny County.

Today, PCRG has over 20 members, 15 local financial institution partners, 7 out of state and national financial institution supporters, foundation support, and support from the City, County and the State. PCRG works with local non-profit counseling organizations, manages the City of Pittsburgh's Land Reserve process and runs the Vacant Property Working Group. PCRG runs the Anti-Predatory Lending Initiative (APLI) and partners with regulatory and enforcement agencies including the Department of Banking, FBI and Attorney Generals office.

PCRG develops and manages programs including:

- Lunch and Learn Series
- Regulatory Speaker Series
- Call-In-Show (hosted with KDKA Television)
- WORK IT OUT Fair (hosted with PA Department of Banking and PHFA)
- "DON'T BORROW TROUBLE" – national foreclosure prevention program created by Freddie Mac
- Bob O'Connor Award
- NDC Training Programs
- Foreclosure Preventing Counseling Services
- Membership savings programs
- Financial Products Guide
- Financial Partner Analysis

If you are interested in taking PCRG to the next level please visit our website at www.pcrq.org to download the executive director job description. Interested individuals should submit a cover letter with salary requirements and a detailed resume electronically to careers@pcrg.org.
